Employee Enrollment for Health Coverage

The Corinthian Plan
Together, providing health care for pastors and church workers

Congregational Employee Plan for Mennonite Church USA

The Corinthian Plan refers to the whole package of employee benefits. The health coverage is provided through the Congregational Employee Plan. THIS IS NOT AN APPLICATION FOR INSURANCE. It is an enrollment form for self-funded health coverage from your denomination.

Notice of Special Enrollment Rights

Congregational Employee Plan for Mennonite Church USA

Everence Association Inc., a fraternal benefit association, has prepared this notice on behalf of your health plan.

If you or your dependents are eligible for coverage under the Congregational Employee Plan (CEP) but choose not to enroll, you may have special rights to enroll at a later time without being considered a late enrollee, as outlined below.

Loss of eligibility for other creditable coverage

If you and/or your dependents waive coverage under this plan because you are enrolled in other creditable coverage[1], you and/or your dependents may enroll in this plan later (without being considered a late enrollee) if employer contributions toward the other creditable coverage cease or if eligibility for the other creditable coverage is lost as a result of any of the following qualifying events:

- Termination of employment
- Involuntary termination of the other health coverage
- Reduction in the number of hours of employment
- Change in marital status such as marriage, legal separation, divorce, or death
- The other health coverage discontinues dependent coverage

You and/or your dependents must enroll in this plan within the 90-day special enrollment period that immediately follows the day employer contributions cease or the other creditable coverage ends.

When new dependents become eligible for coverage

If you choose not to enroll in this plan, you may enroll later (without being considered a late enrollee) at the same time a new dependent becomes eligible to be covered under the plan because of marriage, birth, or adoption. You and the new dependent must enroll in this plan within the 90-day special enrollment period that immediately follows the date the new dependent becomes eligible to enroll in the plan.

In the same way, if your spouse chooses not to enroll in this plan, he or she may enroll later (without being considered a late enrollee) at the same time a newborn or newly adopted child becomes eligible to be covered under the plan. Your spouse and the new dependent must enroll in this plan within the 90-day special enrollment period that immediately follows the date the new dependent becomes eligible to enroll in the plan.

Special enrollment rights under Children's Health Insurance Program Reauthorization Act of 2009

If you and/or your dependents waive coverage under this plan because you are enrolled in Medicaid or a state Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP), you and/or your dependents may enroll in the plan later (without being considered a late enrollee) if Medicaid or CHIP coverage ends because of loss of eligibility.

In addition, if you and/or your dependents are eligible but choose not to enroll in this plan, you and/or your dependents may enroll in the plan later without being considered a late enrollee if you and/or your dependents become eligible for a state group health plan premium assistance subsidy under Medicaid or CHIP which provides help in paying for coverage under this plan.

You and/or your dependents must enroll in the plan within the 90-day special enrollment period that immediately follows the date coverage under Medicaid or CHIP terminates or the date it is determined that you and/or your dependents are eligible for a state premium assistance subsidy, whichever applies.

Enrolling at any other time
Any eligible individual who does not enroll in this plan within his or her respective 90-day enrollment or special enrollment period will be considered a late enrollee. A late enrollee age 19 or older may enroll during the plan year if proof of good health is provided and the individual is approved for coverage (a Statement of Physical Condition must be completed and attached) or a late enrollee may enroll during the annual open enrollment period. A late enrollee under age 19 may enroll at any time without providing proof of good health.

The open enrollment period begins Nov. 1 and ends Dec. 31. Coverage for a late enrollee who enrolls between Nov. 1 and Dec. 31 will be effective Jan. 1.
