Raising Race Conscious Children as a resource for adults, and the #antiracistkidlit hashtag is a good follow on Instagram.

Jennifer Harvey's Raising White Kids: Bringing Up Children in a Racially Unjust America - so, not for youth, but for those who work with or parent them.

The Conscious Kid has an excellent list of books here for folks ages 0–18, and you can also follow them on Instagram.

Ibram X. Kendi and Jason Reynold's collaboration titled Stamped: Racism, Antiracism, and You is a solid recent contribution geared toward adolescents, teens, and young adults as well.
