

Recipients of Mennonite Church USA's Justice Fund grants

From 2020 to present, in alphabetical order

Atlanta (Georgia) Mennonite Church – Partnering with Casa Alterna in immigration work.

Anabaptist Fellowship of Alamosa – Partnering with the Alamosa Bicycle Coalition to provide a transportation option for people who do not have viable transportation.

Beth-El Mennonite Church, Colorado Springs, Colorado – Partnering with Accompaniment and Sanctuary Coalition to create mobile clothing closets.

Boulder (Colorado) Mennonite Church and Mountain States Conference – Leading a conference on dismantling white supremacy and systemic racism with higher education partners.

C3 – Calvary Community Church, Hampton, Virginia – Working on racial justice with community organizations.

Central Plains Conference, Freeman, South Dakota – Supporting the efforts of Agape Peace Center, a conference-affiliated ministry, which works in race relations and restorative justice, in partnership with other church communities and organizations.

Chapel Hill (North Carolina) Mennonite Fellowship – Engaging in anti-racism work in its community, in partnership with other community organizations.

Crystal Springs Mennonite Church, Harper, Kansas – Helping students apply for Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (referred to as DACA) in their local high school.

Eugene (Oregon) Mennonite Church – Providing laundry services for unsheltered people in its community.

Frazer (Pennsylvania) Mennonite Church – Partnering in the Ploughshares Community Garden program.

Lee Heights Community Church, Cleveland, Ohio – Providing internet accessibility for community members and working to address racial justice, police brutality and poverty.

Mennonite Mission Network – Iglesia Cristiana Menonita de Colombia (IMCOL-Colombian Mennonite Church) – Working toward peaceful resolution in Colombia.

North Baltimore (Maryland) Mennonite Church – Providing housing and services to asylum seekers, in partnership with other community organizations.

Nueva Vida Norristown, Pennsylvania – Training and teaching youth to resolve issues peacefully, individually and collectively, in partnership with other community ministries.

Open Door Mennonite Church, Jackson, Mississippi – Starting the Peace and Justice Center of the Deep South to be a neighborhood hub for building community, combatting injustice, and connecting people with each other and resources

Pasadena (California) Mennonite Church – Partnering with Shepherd Heart to provide pastoral care to Mennonite Church USA faith leaders and peace workers, with special attention to leaders who are women and BIPOC.

Peace Mennonite Fellowship, Claremont, California – Partnering with ReconciliAsian to provide an immigration and trauma workshop.

Philadelphia (Pennsylvania) Praise Center – Maintaining safe drop-off sites for virtual learning for families in need, in partnership with Mosaic Conference and two other Mennonite churches.

Rochester (New York) Mennonite Church – Engaging in anti-racism work in the church and community.

San Antonio (Texas) Mennonite Church – Supporting the work of its Interfaith Welcome Coalition, which provides trauma healing programs and other services to immigrants and their families.